

Fundación Paraguaya Code of Ethics:

- I do not use or steal money or other goods of Fundación Paraguaya or its beneficiaries. I do not use goods of Fundación Paraguaya for anything other than work that has been assigned to me or the money for other purposes that have not been established.
- I always tell the truth, I do not conceal data or documents.
- The reports submitted to my superiors are true reflections of the events as they occurred.
- I am not an accomplice or accessory in wrongdoings of anyone. I immediately denounce those who violate this Code of Ethics and the rules and procedures of Fundación Paraguaya.
- I respect and defend the physical and moral integrity of my co-workers and subordinates, avoiding behaviors that include physical or verbal violence, sexual harassment, coercion, abuse, humiliation, etc.
- I do not discriminate against my colleagues or my clients based on sex, age, ethnicity, religion, political preferences, sexual orientation, etc.
- I meet the obligations that I have been assigned to me.
- I reject and refuse gifts, in cash or kind, from beneficiaries and/or providers of Fundación Paraguaya.
- I do not divulge confidential data of Fundación Paraguaya or its clients.
- I avoid all forms of relationship, professional, financial, or personal with clients of Fundación Paraguaya.